known.

SENATOR ABBODD: Okay. Nobody else? Okay. Well, my concern, Senator Hudkins, I've hit my light again, I guess it's...the issue of the nuisance is certainly a stand-alone issue. The issue of the liability is something that...that the Legislature will be addressing in...whenever we take up the state claims bill. There was a claim against the state of Nebraska involving a facility that at least farmers were successful in winning a rather...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time. Thank you, Senator Abboud. Senator Hillman.

SENATOR HILLMAN: Yes, thank you, Madam Speaker, members. Senator Dierks, would you yield to a question, please?

SENATOR DIERKS: Yes, I will.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Dierks.

SENATOR HILLMAN: My question, Senator Dierks, and we had some discussion off the floor, but in western Nebraska another crop that's stored in warehouses and...is a crop that's unique to western Nebraska, is dry edible beans and my question is would this particular amendment, where it refers to grain warehouses, would that also include the dry bean industry?

SENATOR DIERKS: It's my understanding that it does, any elevator who...that stores grain or produce for any length of time. I don't think that means open pits, but I think it means enclosed elevators. Think it does, yes.

SENATOR HILLMAN: Okay. Thank you. I just wanted to clarify the fact that grain includes, in this instance, dry edible beans. Thanks.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator. Senator Abboud.

SENATOR ABBODD: Madam President, Senator Hudkins, do you have the answer to the question?
